ST VINCENT DE PAUL SPECIAL CHRISTMAS COLLECTION

Due to previous difficulties collecting and distributing presents, St Vincent de Paul will this year be giving gift vouchers to our families in need.

To assist in this regard, a collection will be taken on Sunday November 27th after the 10am Mass, if you would like to assist.

Last year, St Vincent de Paul conferences provided approximately $11.6 million in assistance to people in need. This is $1 million more than last year. As you can see the need for the work of our conferences is growing.

Many thanks – St Vincent de Paul Conference Tatura

NEW PRINCIPAL AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL

It is with great pleasure that I inform you of the 12 month appointment of Mrs. Pauline Hindson to the Principalship of Sacred Heart Primary School Tatura, effective from the commencement of the 2017 school year.

Pauline is currently Deputy Principal of St Mary's School Mooropna and has demonstrated her leadership capacity as principal when she led St Mary's school in second semester last year.

Pauline's knowledge and expertise in all aspects of learning and teaching and in particular literacy and Reading Recovery are exemplary.

Pauline's leadership knowledge and skills, her passion for learning, her commitment to Catholic Education and the respect with which she is held in her current role will hold her in good stead as she takes up the principal position at Sacred Heart school.

Pauline holds a Bachelor of Teaching and a Bachelor of Education from Latrobe University and has taken the opportunity to deepen both her religious education knowledge and teaching skills and her faith with further study at Boston University USA. I extend my gratitude to Pauline for accepting this position and I look forward to working with her in her 12-month appointment as Principal of Sacred Heart School.

FEAST OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

"...giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light." Colossians 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or spend most of our time trying to acquire "things". Try putting God first in all things instead.

Shepherds and Criminals

The gospel of Luke is underlined by a message of hope for those who are afflicted, outcast and poor. In this gospel, the message and ministry of Jesus are directed specifically to these lowly ones. Luke's gospel regularly highlights the role played by the poor: the birth of Jesus is celebrated by shepherds and his death is accompanied by criminals. Shepherds and criminals - two classes of people on the fringe of society are witness to the birth and death of Jesus.

Quote from Pope Francis

One of the most troubling of the world's open wounds is the trade in human beings, a modern form of slavery, which violates the God-given dignity of so many of our brothers and sisters and constitutes a true crime against humanity.

At RENATE Conference, 8 Nov 2016

Looking at the Readings

This feast celebrates the power and authority of Christ by creating a collage of images that capture one or more characteristics of Christ's kingship. Each image reinterprets the concept of king, investing it with new meaning. Gathered together they create a kind of litany that extols the kingship of Christ.

Shepherd and commander call to mind the care and protection that Christ lavishes on those who place themselves under his care. King of Israel is a sign of universal rule. Image of the Invisible God acclaims the divine origin of Christ and of the rule that he exercises over all. First born of all Creation places Christ over the entire created world. Source of all Created Things acknowledges both the sovereignty of Christ and his importance as the model after which all things were fashioned. Head of the Body, the Church underscores the intimacy and interrelationship that exist between Christ and all those who are joined to him through faith and baptism. Firstborn of the Dead not only acclaims Christ's resurrection, but it also guarantees the resurrection of those who will follow him into death. Crucified King is clearly the image that reinterprets all other images.

The entire liturgical year is brought to completion in the last words of the gospel: 'Today you will be with me in Paradise.' These are the words that we all long to hear, words that are empty when coming from one who has no authority, but charged with power when spoken by the one who is king over us all. © Dianne Bergant CSS

Feast of the Week: 24 November

Saints Andrew Dũng-Lac and his Companions

The evangelisation of Vietnam began in the 16th century. Thousands of missionary clergy, local clergy and the ordinary Christian people shared the labour of apostolic work and have faced death to bear witness to the truth of the Gospel.

Things You Never Hear in Church

Hey! It's my turn to sit in the front pew.

I was so enthralled, I never noticed the sermon went for ½ hr.

I love it when we sing hymns I've never heard before!

Since we're all here now, let's start the Mass early.
