Liturgical Jottings

We have left Christmas Time to once again enter into Ordinary Time. What is "Ordinary Time"? Is it when little happens? During these 33 or 34 Sundays, we do not celebrate a particular aspect of the Paschal Mystery. Instead, the Mystery of Christ is honoured in its fullness. On each Sunday we celebrate Christ's victory over sin. On these Sundays the vestments are green. Green is the colour of hope. Our hope is in the Lord. St Paul writes: "For in hope we were saved" (Romans 8:24)

Jubilee Year of Mercy

In a special way the Psalms bring to the fore the grandeur of God's merciful action: "The Lord forgives all your iniquity, he heals all your diseases, he redeems your life from the pit, he crowns you with steadfast love and mercy" (Ps 103:3-4).

Looking at the Readings

The readings that are offered to us as we begin Ordinary Time carry over some of the themes that we considered during the Christmas season. Then we celebrated the new era that God inaugurated through the birth of Jesus. Now we look deeply into our minds and hearts to see just how open we are to the demands of that new year. Last Sunday we considered the manifestation of the Spirit at the time of the baptism of Jesus. This Sunday we contemplate the various manifestations of that same Spirit in our own lives. Finally, we are brought to realise that this variety of Spirit-filled ministries is intended to be a source of Christian unity and not of fragmentation or division.

One of the major themes gleaned from the readings for today is that of the call to newness. God summons us to something new, gives us a new name, provides us with new experiences, launches us into new ministries, and calls us to sing a new song of praise. Even Jesus experienced a call to newness. Through Mary, God called him out into ministry, a ministry that would bring the fruits of the eschatological age of fulfilment to the whole world. We may be inclined to think of Pentecost as the season of the Spirit, but in reality the newness of God always comes to us through the Spirit regardless of the season of the year. In the world of the new age, the real glory of Jesus will be manifested in the variety of the gifts of the Spirit given to the church. © Dianne Bergant CSS

Sharing Our Tradition

Marriage is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. "On the threshold of his public life Jesus performs his first sign - at his mother's request - during a wedding feast. The Church attaches great importance to Jesus' presence at the wedding at Cana. She sees in it the confirmation of the goodness of marriage and the proclamation that thenceforth marriage will be an efficacious sign of Christ's presence." (Catholic Catechism § 1613)

On the Lighter Side - Punny Words II

With her marriage she got a new name and a new dress.
She had a boyfriend with a wooden leg, but broke it off.
Every calendar's days are numbered.
When a clock is hungry it goes back four seconds.
