5th June 2016

MINI VINNIES

Our Mini Vinnies did a wonderful job of delivering food items to the St Vincent de Paul store last week. Pictured with the students is Deputy Principal Matt Cameron and Bryan Miller, President of St Vincent de Paul Conference.

Well done to all involved a terrific effort.

St Vincent de Paul Winter Appeal

Today is Winter Appeal Sunday.

By donating to Vinnies, you are helping us make a real and remarkable difference to the lives of the people we assist.

Last year nationally Vinnies:

Assisted 1.3 million people

Provided 365,164 - Bed nights

Delivered 2 Million - Hot meals

It is devastating that 59 per cent of Australians seeking help from homelessness services are women.

ALONG THE TRACK

"One of the fondest memories I have of my father is of him kneeling in prayer by his bed first thing in the morning and last thing at night. I never thought of him as an especially holy man but his faith obviously meant a lot to him, even though in many ways life had dealt him a pretty tough hand. But, as he often said, he was always grateful 'for many blessings'. ..."

This is the first paragraph from Jim Quillinan's Along the Track article.

If you put your name down to receive a printed copy of Jim Quillinan's 'Along the Track' article, it is available in the Narthex.

CONCERT FOR A CAUSE

A group of priests from Bohol is coming to St Mel's with their Bishop as part of their concert tour. The concert "With Love and Faith" is on Monday 13th June at 3.00pm at St Mel's Parish Hall, 35 Hamilton Street, Shepparton. Tickets are $30 in aid of the 7.2 earthquake that struck Bohol in 2013. See noticeboard for further details.

FEDERAL ELECTION

With the approaching Federal Election, we are challenged to reflect as Christians on some of the values and issues we want our country to consider as we face a new moment in our history.

The Australian Bishops Statement "A Vote For The Voiceless", can be downloaded at www.catholic.org.au/bishops-statements/election-2016-statement or pick up a copy at the back of the church.

Also available for reflection/discussion are a series of papers from NetAct (a coalition of Catholic Justice, Welfare & Educational Agencies) in response to a number of current issues where often the human and Christian dimensions are ignored in the ongoing debate and political wrangling. This week you'll find A Fair Deal for Asylum Seekers, A Fair Deal for All Australians re housing and A Fair Deal for the Environment.

PRAYER FOR FARMING FAMILIES

Copies of this prayer have been made available through the Catholic Education Office in Bendigo.

Copies are available at the back of the church.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

"And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, 'Do not weep.'" LUKE 7:13

This verse is a great reminder that the Stewardship lifestyle is one of service, putting God first and to "love one another." Unfortunately today, many people have "passion" for activities they enjoy - their job and off-work activities. Many times our "passion" to excel is at the expense of someone else. Maybe we need to focus on a little less passion for our individual concerns and a lot more compassion for others.

Readings for this week:

1 Kings 17:17-24
Galatians 1:11-19
Luke 7:11-7

Readings for next Sunday:

2 Samuel 12:7-10,13
Galatians 2:16,19-20
Luke 7:36-8:3

Liturgical Jottings Ministries at Mass

Firstly the faithful form a holy people, ... so that they may give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the Priest but also together with him and so that they may learn to offer their very selves. They should, moreover, take care to show this by their deep religious sense and their charity toward brothers and sisters who participate with them in the same celebration. (GIRM 95)

Amoris Laetitia

Love is experienced and nurtured in the daily life of couples and their children. It is helpful to think more deeply about the meaning of the lyrical passage of St Paul (1Cor 13:4-7) and its relevance for the concrete situation of every family. (para 90. Pope Francis)

Looking at the Readings

The response of Jesus as he came upon the funeral procession of the son of the widow of Nain, was one of compassion. The widow makes no request, no prayer is offered, no expression of faith is sought or given; the mother is lost in her deep sorrow. It is Jesus who initiates the encounter with her and with her son. Looking upon her great grief, he feels sorry for her. He reaches out to her with words of solace: 'Do not cry'. Then, putting his hand on the funeral bier, Jesus calls upon the young man to rise. The gentle human sympathy of the 'do not cry' is followed by the authoritative words of divine command: 'Young man, I tell you to get up.' Jesus' gives him back to his mother. The words and actions of Jesus demonstrate that within his heart is divine power and authority along with human tenderness and sympathy.

This story from Luke's gospel is one to which Pope Francis refers (Par.8) in his letter proclaiming an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy 2015/16. This letter named Misericordiae Vultus begins with the statement: 'Jesus Christ is the face of the Father's mercy'. Later in par.8, Pope Francis says: 'With our eyes fixed on Jesus and his merciful gaze, we experience the love of the Most Holy Trinity. ... This love has now been made visible and tangible in Jesus' entire life. ... Everything in him speaks of mercy. Nothing in him is devoid of compassion.'

Jesus, seeing the crowds of people who followed him, realized that they were tired and exhausted, lost and without a guide, and he felt deep compassion for them. What moved Jesus in these situations was nothing other than mercy, with which he read the hearts of those he met and responded to their deepest need. When he came upon the widow of Nain taking her son out for burial, he felt great compassion for the immense suffering of this grieving mother, and he gave back her son by raising him from the dead (cf. Lk 7:15).'

That same Jesus who had compassion, has compassion still. He looks on us and loves us; 'just as he is merciful, so we are called to be merciful to each other'. (par.9)

On the Lighter Side

A parishioner wanted to prove a ghost really haunted the church basement. He arranged to take a photo but the ghost wasn't visible. He asked the ghost why? The ghost thought a minute and replied, "Well, I guess the spirit was willing, but the flash was weak."
