15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

10th JULY 2016

SEA SUNDAY

Throughout the history of mankind, the sea was the place where routes of explorers and adventurers intersected, and where battles determined the rise and fall of many nations. But it is, above all, a privileged place for exchange of goods and global trade. Actually, over 90% of merchandises worldwide are transported by nearly 100,000 ships, that unrelenting, are sailing from one end of the world to the other, run by a workforce of approximately 1.2 million seafarers of all races, nationalities and religions.

Due to a number of factors related to their profession, seafarers are invisible to us and to our society. As we celebrate Sea Sunday, every Christian is invited to look around and realise how many of the objects we use in our daily lives have come to us through the hard and laborious work of seafarers.

 There will be a leaving 'bucket collection' for Seafarers today.

DEAR POPE FRANCIS

This wonderful book is available in hard copy and features Pope Francis answering letters from children from around the world. We are doing an order through the Church so anyone who would like to order a copy for $20 please put your name down on the clipboard at the back of the church.

PRAYER FOR SEAFARERS

O God, in your Kindness, lead all Seafarers through the perils of the ocean and bring them back in safety to their homes and friends. Guide them through the many temptations their way of life occasions. Inspire them to make fruitful use of the clubs and chapels Your Church has established for them, and grant that they may learn and follow You with strength and loyalty through Christ our Lord. Amen

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" Luke 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. But did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor, who may be someone you don't know, someone that looks different than you or someone you don't like, without expecting anything in return.

NO MERRIGUM MASS

Please note that there will not be a Mass at Merrigum on Sunday, 24th July 2016.

MASS TIMES - KYABRAM

I have asked parishioners to discuss among themselves their thoughts on changing the Saturday evening Mass time. I haven't had anyone say to me that it wasn't a good idea. Since there is no Saturday evening Mass on 23rd July (only Sunday at 10am on 24th July), the next Saturday Masses will be 6th August (Confirmation/Eucharist weekend) and 13th August - both of which will commence at 6.00pm (which will be the new time for all Saturday Vigil Masses).

Liturgical Jottings Ministries at Mass

The Sacristan: A liturgical function is also exercised by the sacristan, who diligently arranges the liturgical books, the vestments and other things (e.g. cloths, candles, sacred vessels, water, wine and bread) that are necessary for the celebration of Mass. (GIRM 105b)

Joy of the Gospel

Evangelisation is not to be left to the "professionals" while the rest of us are passive recipients. Through baptism every Christian is challenged to be actively engaged in evangelisation, and there is a certain urgency about this calling. Indeed, anyone who has truly experienced God's saving love does not need much time or lengthy training to go out and proclaim that love. Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium n120

Looking at the Readings

Today's Gospel brings us the well-known story of the Good Samaritan. The lawyer who asked Jesus the initial question in this encounter, did so to test him. "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" he asked. Jesus responded, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?" Even after the lawyer's answer receives the approval of Jesus, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live", he poses another question to Jesus: "Who is my neighbour?"

Jesus' parable, given in response, moved beyond the simple understanding that the law of love was to treat your neighbour as you would treat yourself. The sense of "neighbour" as meaning one's fellow Jew who belonged to the same covenant which God made with the people of Israel, was not enough; Jesus opened up an understanding beyond this narrow definition. The parable of the Good Samaritan serves to show how wide God's love and mercy is towards all.

Last year Pope Francis announced "an Extraordinary Jubilee which has at its centre the mercy of God. It will be a Holy Year of Mercy. We want to live in the light of the word of the Lord: "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful" (cf. Lk 6:36)..... I am confident that the whole Church, which is in such need of mercy for we are sinners, will be able to find in this Jubilee the joy of rediscovering and rendering fruitful God's mercy, with which we are all called to give comfort to every man and every woman of our time. Do not forget that God forgives all, and God forgives always."

A commentator, reflecting on this Lucan passage, suggests two questions to keep in mind in the coming week: "First, how have I experienced Christ as good Samaritan in my life – raising me up, offering me healing and new life when I have been lying by the roadside? Second, who is the person to whom Christ is calling me today to become neighbour?"

On the Lighter Side

Fr David answers the phone. "Hello, is this Fr David?"
"It is." "This is the Australian Tax Office. Can you help us?" "I can." "Do you know a Ted Egan?" "I do."
"Is he a member of your congregation?" "He is." "Did he donate $10,000 to the school?" "He will".

Five simple rules for happiness:

1. Free your heart from hatred. 2. Free your mind from worries.
3. Live simply. 4. Give more. 5. Expect less.
